France, Spain, and Andorra

About to drive into the Pyrenees

Andorra

Encamps, ski town. Up in the Pyrenees (Pier-ruh-nees) Mountains.

Literally someone's backyard

Eye catching, Euro architecture. Piet Mondriat, modern ski town.
